

CELL PRESS DECLARATION OF INTERESTS POLICY

Transparency is essential for a reader's trust in the scientific process and for the credibility of published articles. At Cell Press, we feel that disclosure of competing interests is a critical aspect of transparency. Therefore, we ask that all authors disclose any financial or other interests related to the submitted work that (1) could affect or have the perception of affecting the author's objectivity, or (2) could influence or have the perception of influencing the content of the article, in a "Declaration of Interests" section.

What types of articles does this apply to?

We ask that you disclose competing interests for all submitted content, including research articles as well as front matter (e.g., Reviews, Previews, etc.) by completing and submitting the "Declaration of Interests" form below. We also ask that you include a "Declaration of Interests" section in the text of all research articles even if there are no interests declared. For front matter, we ask you to include a "Declaration of Interests" section only when you have information to declare.

What should I disclose?

We ask that you and all authors disclose any personal financial interests (examples include stocks or shares in companies with interests related to the submitted work or consulting fees from companies that could have interests related to the work), professional affiliations, advisory positions, board memberships, or patent holdings that are related to the subject matter of the contribution. As a guideline, you need to declare an interest for (1) any affiliation associated with a payment or financial benefit exceeding $10,000 p.a. or 5% ownership of a company or (2) research funding by a company with related interests. You do not need to disclose diversified mutual funds, 401ks, or investment trusts.

Where do I declare competing interests?

Competing interests should be disclosed on the "Declaration of Interests" form as well as in the last section of the manuscript before the "References" section, under the heading "Declaration of Interests". This section should include financial or other competing interests as well as affiliations that are not included in the author list. Examples of "Declaration of Interests" language include:

"AUTHOR is an employee and shareholder of COMPANY."

"AUTHOR is a founder of COMPANY and a member of its scientific advisory board."

NOTE: Primary affiliations should be included on the title page of the manuscript with the author list and do not need to be included in the "Declaration of Interests" section. Funding sources should be included in the "Acknowledgments" section and also do not need to be included in the "Declaration of Interests" section. (A small number of front-matter article types do not include an "Acknowledgments" section. For these articles, reporting of funding sources is not required.)

What if there are no competing interests to declare?

For research articles, if you have no competing interests to declare, please note that in a "Declaration of Interests" section with the following wording:

"The authors declare no competing interests."

Front-matter articles do not need to include this section when there are no competing interests to declare.
